“Art Song towards the mid 21st Century”

With Laura Strickling and Manuel Laufer (New York University)

1:00 pm

The City of Baltimore Schubertiade

Professional and amateur singers alike are welcome to bring a piece to sing at the City of Baltimore Schubertiade, where BLW director Daniel Schlosberg and guest Manuel Laufer (piano) will accompany and collaborate. Schubert is welcome of course, but so is any other art song composer.

Sunday, Oct 23

10:30 AM

Der Wanderer: The Annual Baltimore Lieder Weekend 5K Walk

Once again, we will retroactively upstage the Baltimore Marathon folks.

An urban amble and art song geek-out through some of Baltimore's most charming bits.

Note: the meeting place for this event will be Ceremony Coffee Roasters in Mt Vernon (520 Park Ave)

Participants are welcome to purchase espresso and a pastry and “chill” starting at 10:00, and the group will set out by foot at 10:30.

3:00 PM

A Stanley Walden 90th Birthday Portrait Concert

Soprano Jamie Jordan and pianist Daniel Schlosberg pay tribute to the iconoclastic, unclassifiable American composer with songs and solo piano works, including world premieres hot off the press by the soon-to-be nonagenarian.
